Tax Collector's Offices To Close Due To Hurricane Milton

West Palm Beach, Fla. – The Constitutional Tax Collector's office is closely monitoring Hurricane Milton in conjunction with Palm Beach County's Division of Emergency Management. As a result of the potential impacts of Hurricane Milton, all Tax Collector Service Centers will stop servicing clients at 12:00 p.m. Wednesday, October 9, 2024. Furthermore, all offices will be closed on Thursday, October 10, 2024. Offices will reopen once it is determined that all locations are safe, and that travel is safe for employees and the public.

Clients who have scheduled reservations during the time the offices are closed are required to reschedule their reservations by visiting <https://www.pbctax.gov/reservations/>.

- If you are scheduled for a driver license reservation please visit this link, <https://mydmvportal.flhsmv.gov> to verify if you can complete your transaction online.
- If your driver license is set to expire within the next 30 days, please contact the Florida Department of Highways Safety and Motor Vehicles by phone at 850-617-2000 or by visiting <https://flhsmv.service-now.com/csp> to request a Temporary Driving Permit. Then, visit <https://www.pbctax.gov/reservations/> to schedule your driver license reservation.
- Many tax collector services are available online at www.pbctax.gov or by mail. Visit our website to see if an alternate method of service is available. If you must come into one of our offices, please reschedule your reservation at <https://www.pbctax.gov/reservations/>.

Walk-in service is not available at any of the Tax Collector's office locations. All in-person service is provided to Palm Beach County residents by reservation only.

For updates on when the Service Centers will reopen, please visit www.pbctax.gov and follow on Facebook @PBCTAX.

About the Constitutional Tax Collector, serving Palm Beach County

The Constitutional Tax Collector, serving Palm Beach County was established as an independent agency in 1885 by the Florida Constitution. Today, Anne M. Gannon, the first woman elected to the office of Constitutional Tax Collector in Palm Beach County, is serving her fourth consecutive four-year term. The Tax Collector's main office is located at 301 N. Olive Avenue, West Palm Beach. Six service centers are located throughout the county, serving the nearly 1.5 million residents with real estate property, tangible property, and tourist development tax services, vehicle and vessel registration, motor vehicle license services, and other services including hunting and fishing licenses. With a team of more than 340 employees dedicated to providing unparalleled service that inspires trust, the PBC Tax Collector's Office collected $5.07 billion in property taxes during the 2022 property tax year.
